

Four Guys Ride the Four Corners... arrival at Liberty Coach in Stuart, FL 6/6/10

Pictured below standing: Frank Konigseder, Stu Lewis, Fred White. Kneeling: Mike LaTone and Ron Powell.

About 2 years ago, Stu Lewis shared his dream to ride the 4 furthestmost corners of the US on a motorcycle. After lots of planning they cleared their schedules and the 4 guys, Stu Lewis from South Carolina, Ron Powell from Indiana, Fred White from Ohio and Mike LaTone from New York, departed on June 3, 2010 from Chesapeake City, MD to begin their almost 10,000 mile adventure. They expect the trip to last between 6 and 8 weeks with their first corner being Key West, FL. This will not be a ride to beat any records for the shortest time but a great adventure for 4 friends to sightsee and "enjoy the ride". While they have covered a lot of ground in their previous travels, much of it has been from the comfy driver's seat of their Prevost motorcoaches! You can enjoy their ride from the comfort of home as you follow the blog of these Liberty Coach customers & friends on their 4 Corners Adventure..... <http://4guysride4corners.blogspot.com>
